Section 8 – Distance Marketing Notice

Information for the purposes of Regulation 6 of the European Communities (Distance Marketing of Consumer Financial Services) Regulations 2004, as amended (the "Regulations")

The ICAV was registered in Ireland on 18 November 2015 with registration number C146346 as an Irish collective asset-management vehicle with segregated liability between sub-funds and is authorised in Ireland by the Central Bank of Ireland as a qualifying investor alternative investment fund. All correspondence in connection with the ICAV should be forwarded to the Administrator, SS&C Financial Services (Ireland) Limited, Bishop's Square, Redmond's Hill, Dublin, D02 TD99, Ireland.

The objective for which the ICAV is established is the collective investment of its funds and giving members the benefit of the results of the management of its funds.

The subscription price for Shares in the Fund depends on fluctuations in financial markets outside the control of the ICAV. Past performance is not an indication of future performance.

Investors should note that the price of Shares may go down as well as up to reflect changes in the Net Asset Value of the relevant Fund to which the Shares belong, as well as any income therefrom. The difference at any time between the subscription price and repurchase price of Shares in a Fund means that an investment in the Fund should be viewed as a medium to long term investment.

This Application Form and your contract with the ICAV are governed by and interpreted in accordance with Irish law and each of the parties hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Irish courts.

This Application Form, all other terms and conditions of your contract with the ICAV and all communications in relation to the ICAV shall be in English.

If you have any complaints in relation to any aspects of your relations with the ICAV you should email the Investment Manager at notifications@rvcapital.com. If you are not satisfied with the response, you have the right to complain directly to the Central Bank.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- 1 Non-resident declarations are subject to inspection by the Irish Revenue Commissioners and it is a criminal offence to make a false declaration.
- 2 To be valid, the application form (incorporating the declaration required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners) must be signed by the applicant. Where there is more than one applicant, each person must sign. If the applicant is a company, it must be signed by the company secretary or another authorised officer.
- 3 If the application form (incorporating the declaration required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners) is signed under power of attorney, a copy of the power of attorney must be furnished in support of the signature.

Notes in relation to residence / ordinary residence:

Residence — Individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he;

- 1) spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year; or
- 2) has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Up to 31 December 2008, presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at the end of the day (midnight). From 1 January 2009, presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Ordinary Residence — Individual

The term "ordinary residence" as distinct from "residence" relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2004 and departs from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year in 2007.

Residence — Company

Prior to Finance Act 2014, company residence was determined with regard to the long-established common law rules based on central management and control. These rules were significantly revised in Finance Act 2014 to provide that a company incorporated in the State will be regarded as resident for tax purposes in the State, unless it is treated as resident in a treaty partner country by virtue of a double taxation treaty. While the common law rule based on central management and control remains in place, it is subject to the statutory rule for determining company residence based on incorporation in the State set out in the revised section 23A TCA 1997.

The new incorporation rule for determining the tax residence of a company incorporated in the State will apply to companies incorporated on or after 1 January 2015. For companies incorporated in the State before this date, a transition period will apply until 31 December 2020.

Effective 8 April 2019, the Monetary Authority of Singapore ("MAS") has introduced enhanced safeguards when dealing with accredited investors in Singapore. The following sections 2, 3, 4 and 5 are only applicable to accredited investors in Singapore. Please review and fill out as applicable.

2. Accredited Investor Opt-In Notice

Accredited investors are assumed to be better informed, and better able to access resources to protect their own interests, and therefore require less regulatory protection. Investors who agree to be treated as accredited investors therefore forgo the benefit of certain regulatory safeguards. For example, issuers of securities are exempted from issuing a full prospectus registered with the Monetary Authority of Singapore in respect of offers that are made only to accredited investors, and intermediaries are exempted from a number of business conduct requirements when dealing with accredited investors. Investors should consult a professional adviser if they do not understand any consequence of being treated as an accredited investor.

1. Based on your on-boarding form and accompanying supporting documents, we have assessed you as satisfying the criteria in the definition of 'Accredited Investor' in section 4A(1)(a) of the Securities and Futures Act (SFA) or a person prescribed under regulation (2)(2)(d) of the Securities and Futures (Classes of Investors Regulations 2018).
2. Should you wish for us to treat you as an Accredited Investor, you need to opt-in to being treated as such, by sending us your consent in the format provided in Section 3 to this Notice.
3. You may however, at any time after consenting to being treated as an Accredited Investor, notify us in the format of the Opt-Out Declaration in Section 4, that you no longer consent to be treated as an 'Accredited Investor', giving us at least 30 days' notice to give effect to your decision.
4. We will upon the passage of the above 30-days' notice, terminate our treatment of you as an Accredited Investor.
5. Summary of loss of regulatory protections applicable to Accredited Investors-see Section 5.
6. Should you opt-in to being treated as an Accredited Investor, we may offer you certain investment opportunities which are only available to Accredited Investors. Please be aware that in the event you wish to opt-out of being treated as an Accredited Investor, we will need to terminate our relationship with you as our regulatory status as a fund management company licensed by the MAS servicing only accredited/institutional investors (LFMC(A/I)), does not allow us to service retail investors.
7. Transactions you have entered into with us prior to the passage of the 30-day notice period in your opt-out notice to us, will not however, be impacted.
